

Malta Busbar Cable Tray Manufacturer

AI Overview

ESS Electrical Supplies and Services Limited and EAE Electric are key providers of busbar systems and cable trays in Malta. ESS Electrical Supplies and Services Limited is located in Birkirkara, Mriehel, Malta. ESS Electrical Supplies and Services Limited is a leading supplier of electrical products, including busbar systems, cable trays, distribution boards, protective devices, and cables. They have extensive experience in major Maltese projects such as schools, hotels, commercial premises, and residential developments. ESS represents several international brands, including Mondini Cavi, AEG Electra, Palazzoli, and GE Power Controls, ensuring access to high-quality and reliable products. They also provide technical advice and support for installations, making them a comprehensive solution provider for electrical distribution needs in Malta. EAE Electric offers modular busbar energy distribution systems and cable trays produced using the ROLL FORMING method. Their products include the E-Line TB and E-Line URC series trolley busbars for energizing moving machinery, as well as solutions for offices, plants, data centers, and electric vehicle charging stations. EAE emphasizes modular, flexible, and safe energy distribution, and their systems are compatible with Building Information Modeling (BIM) for efficient project planning and management. While EAE is an international company, their products are available in Malta through distributors or project partnerships. Other Cable Tray Suppliers For general cable management and tray solutions, FBP Malta and BigMat Malta offer a range of cable trays, mesh trays, and trunking systems suitable for commercial and residential installations. These suppliers provide standard cable tray lengths and protective enclosures for efficient cable routing and safety. Summary For busbar and cable tray solutions in Malta, ESS Electrical Supplies and Services Limited is the primary local supplier with extensive project experience and international brand representation. EAE Electric provides ad...
