

Where to buy network server racks in China

AI Overview

You can buy network server racks in China from major online platforms like Alibaba and Made-in-China, or directly from specialized manufacturers such as Gcabling, Gometal, Ship Group, and OTSCABLE.

Online Platforms for Sourcing

- Alibaba: Offers a wide range of network server racks directly from Chinese factories, allowing global buyers to source products easily and compare prices and specifications.
- Made-in-China: Provides access to verified manufacturers and wholesalers, with options for OEM/ODM customization, bulk orders, and factory-direct pricing.

Leading Manufacturers

- Gcabling Electronic: Specializes in floor and wall-mounted network cabinets, offering OEM/ODM services and personalized data center solutions.
- Ship Group: Produces server racks, wall-mounted cabinets, and cabling systems with an annual production capacity of 100,000 pieces, also providing global OEM/ODM services.
- Gometal (Langfang Gometal Network Equipment Co., Ltd): Located in northern China, this manufacturer offers network racks, server cabinets, and network solutions with a complete industrial chain and over 10 years of experience.
- OTSCABLE: Offers standard 19", 21", 23" racks and custom server racks with tool-less shelf installation, compliant with ANSI/EIARS-310-D and other industry standards, suitable for telecom, datacom, and large network enterprises.

Considerations When Buying

- Customization: Many manufacturers provide customizable dimensions, panel support, and locking options to fit specific technical requirements.
- Location: Northern China (e.g., Langfang) has a large production base with a complete industrial chain, while southern cities like Shenzhen, Guangzhou, and Ningbo are also popular sourcing hubs.
- Quality and Certification: Check for compliance with industry standards such as ANSI/EIARS-310-D, ETS 300 119, or Open Rack configurations for...
