

Zimbabwe Electrical Distribution Box Manufacturer for Home Use

AI Overview

Key suppliers of home electrical distribution boxes in Zimbabwe include Electro Zimbabwe, Sona Solar Zimbabwe, and Sitho Electrical Boxes, offering a range of DB boxes for residential use. Leading Suppliers and Manufacturers Electro Zimbabwe is a prominent provider of high-quality electrical components, including fully integrated electrical distribution systems, breakers, switches, isolators, and DB boxes suitable for residential, commercial, and industrial projects. They focus on safety, reliability, and efficiency, and offer products from renowned international manufacturers. Sona Solar Zimbabwe specializes in solar power solutions and also supplies PVC distribution boxes for MCB circuit breakers. Their DB boxes are designed for safe and efficient electrical distribution in homes and businesses, and they operate in Harare, Marondera, Mutare, Chitungwiza, and other regions. Sitho Electrical Boxes, located in Harare, provides electrical distribution equipment and services, including residential DB boxes. They are a local option for sourcing distribution boards and related electrical components. Online and Retail Options Several online platforms in Zimbabwe list DB boxes for purchase, allowing buyers to compare prices and specifications. For example, Zimbabwe Building Materials Suppliers (ZBMS) offers a variety of distribution boards and panelboards suitable for home installations. Additionally, business directories like The Directory Zimbabwe provide listings of verified electrical distribution companies, enabling users to request quotes and view ratings. Considerations for Choosing a DB Box Material: PVC or metal enclosures depending on durability and safety requirements. Capacity: Number of circuits and compatibility with MCBs or fuses. Compliance: Ensure products meet Zimbabwean electrical safety standards. Supplier Support: Availability of installation guidance, wa...
